Interested in developing a special interest in Headache?

Would you like up to 40 minutes to spend with each patient?

The City of London Migraine Clinic is an internationally renowned medical charity for the management of Headache and Migraine.

Due to a steady increase in patient numbers, we are recruiting an additional doctor to our dynamic team of 7 doctors to work a minimum of 3 four-hour sessions a week. This would include one session (10-2 or 1-5) on Tuesdays and 2 sessions on either Mondays or Wednesdays. A generous 40 minutes is allocated to new patient appointments and 20 minutes allocated for follow up appointments.

We welcome doctors with either a GP or neurology background who have a whole patient approach to the delivery of patient care. An interest in migraine and other primary headaches is expected although we will provide the training necessary to deliver the Clinic's well-known service. Experience in Contraception and Mental Health would complete the picture of our ideal candidate.

The salary for this role is in accordance with an NHS Point 1 salary for a Specialty Doctor, i.e. £3,879.50 per annum incl. London weighting (per session). Although we are a registered medical charity and not part of the NHS, we can provide access to the NHS Pension Scheme.
